

Media ownership in our country is already concentrated more than is healthy in a democratic society.

Further consolidation would be extremely dangerous in its stifling of diverse opinion. Please be aware of the importance of the decision you will make this week. Respectully, Dr. Edwin N. Barker